PADUCAH, KY., TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 8, 1909

TEN CENTS PER WEEK

CITY AND COUNTY PLAN DRAINAGE OF BIG SECTION

Region Including and Beyond
Oak Grove Will be Benefited.

Large Tract Will be Redeemed by it.

COMMITTEES ARE APPOINTED.

Alderman Ed. Hannan, president of the board of aldermen, appointed Alderman P. H. Stewart and Harry Hank to act on the committee of the general council to meet the fiscal court in reference to draining the northwestern part of the city. City Engineer Washington has prepared a plat of the land it is proposed to drain into Perkins Creek, and it will be presented before the committee from the city and the fiscal court and discussed whether it will be advisable to make the ditch.

President Foreman, of the lower board, appointed Councilmen Hannan and Bower. County Judge Lightfoot has not yet appointed his committee, but as soon as he does a meeting will be arranged, when the joint committee will go over the plans and estimates of the city engineer.

The purpose is to drain that section of the city and suburbs, lying north and west of the east line of Oak Grove cemetery, into Perkins creek. It would redeem a valuable section of the city and greatly improve health conditions.

Mrs. Mary Parker.

Mrs. Mary Parker, 35 years old, of Sharp, died this morning at 12:15 o'clock of pneumonia and typhoid fever, leaving her husband and six children. Other near relatives are her mother, Mrs. E. Clark, and brother, Lewis Clark, of Bulla street, and sister, Mrs. R. R. Tredway, of Clements street, and Mrs. William Sellman, of Broad street, all of this city, and Mrs. C. M. Farmer, of Elva, Ky. Mrs. Parker was a devout member of the Missionary Baptist church and was a good wife and mother. Mrs. Parker was a grand-daughter of Dr. H. Johnston, who died a few years ago near Sharp. The burial will take place tomorrow afternoon at the Story cemetery. The funeral will be conducted by the Rev. Elenander.

THIS IS THE HOTTEST DAY OF THE SUMMER SO FAR.

Paducah was said to be the one of the warmest places in the country yesterday with the temperature standing at 92 degrees, two degrees less than Louisville; but today the mercury reads 95 degrees at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the shade. Today is the warmest day this summer. The weatherman predicts cooler weather for tomorrow. The same prediction was given out yesterday for cooler weather, but the mercury jumped up three degrees.

British Press.

London, June 8.—That the next country that goes to war with England will have to fight the whole British empire was made plain today in resolutions adopted by the imperial press in conference. It declares it the duty of the press to do everything possible to co-operate with the naval and military authorities in organizing the empire's defense and to take precautions in publishing news in war times.

OLD BOYS IN GRAY MAKE OF MEMPHIS WILLING CAPTIVE

Memphis, June 8.—The reunion of the Confederate veterans commenced today, and the convention in the Bijou theater was called to order at 10 o'clock. Governor Patterson welcomed the veterans. Gen. Clement Evans, commander in chief, responded. Oratory consumed the afternoon and at 4 o'clock a floral parade is planned. The city is full of guests.

Princeton has been selected as the place of meeting this year of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative union, better known as the Farmer's Union. The convention will meet Tuesday, July 27, and will be in session three days. Some of the officers of the union wished to again hold the meeting in Paducah but Princeton offered better inducements.

George Freeman May Not be Hanged in Jail Yard, Because There is Not Sufficient Room For Execution

TUBERCULOSIS IN MILK.

Budapest, June 8.—The extinction of the human race through the use of tuberculosis milk unless the world awakens to the gravity of the evil is the prophecy of Nathan Straus, the new York philanthropist, made today before the International Dairy Congress. He declared the spread of tuberculosis among cattle and people is due to tuberculosis in milk.

STATE BAPTISTS IN ASSOCIATION TO CONVENE SOON

The general Association of Kentucky Baptists, composed of seventy-eight district associations, 1,746 churches and 213,498 members, will meet in its seventy-second session at Ashland, Ky., June 22, and will be called to order by the Rev. Dr. W. D. Nowlin, of Mayfield, moderator. The annual sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. Calvin M. Thompson, editor of the Western Recorder.

The Rev. Dr. W. D. Powell, state secretary of missions, will read the most successful report ever made to the Kentucky Baptists.

Committees to report are as follows:

State Missions—M. E. Dodd, L. B. Warren, Home Missions—C. W. Knight, C. C. Marshall, Foreign Missions—W. E. Huter, M. E. Bailey, Ministers' Aid—L. W. Doolan, T. H. Plemmons, Order of Business—R. E. Reed, J. W. Porter, Temperance—J. E. Martin, J. W. Mahan, Nominations—H. B. Taylor, J. G. Bow, Apportionment—E. S. Alderman, W. E. Mitchell, Evangelism—J. P. Jenkins, W. A. Burns, Church Building—A. S. Petrey, Charles Martin, Sunday School and Colportage—H. C. McGill, C. O. Bennett, Woman's Work—C. V. Cook, J. R. Johnson, Young People's Work—W. C. Taylor, W. H. Williams, Orphans' Home—E. G. Vick, E. W. Barnett, Laymen's Movement—Thomas D. Osborne, Theodore Harris, Sanitarium—Dr. S. E. Woody, Dr. R. W. Taylor, Obituaries—Charles Anderson, S. J. Cannon.

The Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Dodd and the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Bruner, and Miss Perkins, of the county, will attend from here.

ED CALLAHAN MAY RECOVER—SAYS HE KNOWS WHO SHOT

Jackson, June 8. (Special).—Ed Callahan is improving and is expected to recover. He says he recognized the men who fired on him. Judge Adams sent the sheriff to the scene to investigate. He is determined to prosecute.

Frankfort, June 8. (Special).—As the result of the dispute over the examination of the adjutant general's office, and threatened resignation of General Johnston, Governor Willson this morning ordered Inspector Thatcher to fire Noel Gaines at once. Gaines made the examination.

Two Loads Dumped On Levee. Two wagons, one loaded with sacks of grain and the other with loose hay, just coming off the ferry boat were dumped on the levee this morning. The horse hitched to the grain wagon shied at the big roller on the levee. The load of hay belonged to a farmer from Illinois that came in on the ferry.

Train Goes Through Bridge. Chicago, June 8.—Two men were fatally scalded and a third injured today when a freight engine and several cars plunged through a bridge into the Calumet river at Blue Island. The bridge was weakened by a recent washout.

Sheriff Ogilvie Said He Will Spring Trap Himself if He is Spared For Task—Con- demned Man Unaffected.

Owing to the crowded condition of the jail yard, Sheriff John Ogilvie may select another location to perform the legal execution of George Freeman, the negro murderer of Essie Cobb. His order from the governor says that he may execute the negro in any convenient enclosure. Formerly the jail yard was large enough, but since a larger kitchen and an engine house have been erected, there is little room left. Sheriff Ogilvie will consult the contractor, who will build the scaffold, and get his advice as to whether there is sufficient room for the scaffold to be built easily, and to accommodate the fifty spectators that are allowed to view the execution.

Any enclosure in the city may be selected by the sheriff as the governor's instructions allow him this privilege, although if there is room at the jail yard it will be given the preference. Sheriff Ogilvie has announced that unless illness prevents that he will pull the lever that will end the earthly existence of Freeman. He is not particularly fond of the duty, but will follow out the instructions of the court.

Sheriff Ogilvie has been besieged with carpenters wanting the contract for erecting the scaffold, but the contract will not be let until he has considered all bids.

Freeman, the condemned negro, has not shown any sign of nervousness, but is still a devout reader of the Bible. He takes the situation calmly and declares he is not afraid to die.

MAGISTRATES DENY THOSE RESOLUTIONS

Magistrate Charles Emery today explained about the attack on Mrs. Crane, prepared by County Judge Lightfoot and recorded in the minutes of the fiscal court. "That resolution was not adopted by the fiscal court," said Magistrate Emery. "Judge Lightfoot read it and asked permission to make it a matter of record. He inquired if there were any objections and the vote was taken on the question of permitting the judge's composition to go on record. It is customary to permit the county judge's statements to go in the record, and I don't remember about voting; but suppose I did. I wasn't paying much attention, except to notice it was something unofficial."

PRESBYTERIANS HOLDING MEETING AT FIRST CHURCH.

There was a large attendance last night at the First Presbyterian church where the Rev. F. E. Johnston, synodical evangelist, will preach every night this week at 7:50 o'clock. Dr. Johnston is Scotch and a sound doctrinal speaker, as well as a fine orator.

Favors Broad Culture.

South Bethlehem, June 8.—Attorney General Wickham today delivered the annual address to the students of the Lehigh University and advised them to secure a broad education, and not begin specializing too early in life. He told the men, who enter life work with a mere mechanical training, when he comes in competition with men of broad culture, is at a disadvantage.

INDIANA WINNER OF BALLOON RACE FOR TIME ALOFT

Indianapolis, June 8.—The Indiana landed at 6 p. m. Monday at Dickson, Tenn., and wins the American record endurance. Today's message from Ashland City, Tenn., proved to be a message delayed in transmission. No word was received from Fisher until at noon today. The Indiana's record is 49 hours in the air. The previous record was 44. Forbes of New York, gets the cup for distance.

In a message received here by friends, Fisher says, "Without letting out ballast twice we suddenly shot 15,000 feet upward and came down suddenly. The wind seems to be vertical rather than parallel to the earth's surface. The last pigeon refused to leave the basket."

BANK'S ATTORNEY ADVISES AGAINST LOAN TO SCHOOLS

Because County Judge Did Not Preside When Authority Granted.

Bond of the Vincennes Bridge Company.

IS ONLY UNTIL CONSTRUCTED.

Because the minutes of the fiscal court were signed by Magistrate C. W. Emery, who was presiding as county judge over the session of fiscal court in March, the Globe Bank and Trust company has refused to loan money to the county school board. The bank is acting on the advice of its attorney in this. About $8,000 was needed by the school board for current expenses.

Some of the county officials are divided on the point of the validity of making the loan. County Judge Lightfoot says the fiscal court has a perfect right to select a presiding officer during the absence of the county judge. He favored securing the money from another bank, rather than dispute the right of the court to select the presiding officer. County Attorney Alben Barkley says there is some doubt in his mind whether the court may select a presiding officer unless the county judge is ill or absent from the city, and then he thinks it would be legal for the judge pro tem to sign the minutes.

Bridge Bond.

The bond of the Vincennes Bridge company adopted yesterday by the fiscal court does not indemnify the county for the maintenance of the bridge after it has been received by the court. The bond, which is for $70,000, is in force only during the erection of the bridge, and if it should fail the day after it had been accepted by the fiscal court, then the county would have no recourse on the bond. By the terms of the bond any suit to recover damages because of faulty construction of the bridge must be filed within three months after acceptance of the work.

TAFT AND GOMPERS BURY THE HATCHET; BRYAN AND SENATE

Washington, June 8.—President Taft and Samuel Gompers have buried the hatchet. The president provided Gompers with personal letters of introduction to the American ambassadors in European countries, which he will visit during the investigation of labor conditions on the continent.

Washington, June 8.—The attack on seventeen Democratic senators in the Commons by Bryan in the current issue caused a number of Democratic senators to begin telling Bryan to mind his own business and keep to himself any conclusions he may have as to their attitude upon the tariff bill. They renounce him as a leader, and say they don't care a fig for his opinion, anyway.

Delinquent Taxes

Preparations are being made at the city hall for enforcing the penalty for delinquent taxes July 1. All taxpayers are especially urged to pay promptly and avoid the penalty. Prompt payment also may save the city from a temporary deficit and the necessity of securing a short loan and paying interest.

Washington, June 8.—The grain report of the department of agriculture issued today, gives the following estimates: Area sown, spring wheat, 13,391,000 acres, 69 per cent more sown than last year. Condition of spring wheat June 1, 95.2 compared with 95 last year. Condition of winter wheat June 1, 80.7, compared with 83.5 last year.

Announcement From Fort Worth Forty Days' Racing Meet Will be Held in Paducah Late in Summer

WISCONSIN WILL PLAY JAPS.

Madison, Wis., June 8.—The Wisconsin University faculty voted unanimously to send the baseball team to Japan for a twelve game series with the Keio University, Tokio, in September. They will be back November 2.

Fair Association Had Corre- spondence With Horsemen, Who Dropped Communica- tion on Hearing Terms.

Fort Worth, Texas, June 8. (Special).—P. A. Brady, presiding judge of the race meet here, who will preside at the Oklahoma City race meeting, announced that a 40 days' meeting has been arranged at Paducah, Ky., to follow the Oklahoma meeting. Brady will be presiding judge with Milton S. Mooney, as manager.

The directors of the Paducah Fair association have been in correspondence with Mark Moore in reference to having a 30 days' meet in Paducah about July 15. The matter was first taken up by Moore and he wanted a longer racing meet than 20 days, but Paducah horse owners thought 40 days would be too long. The last proposition made Moore was that the association would lease him the track for twenty days with the rent paid in advance, reserving the privilege to cancel the contract any time the races were not on the square. Nothing has been heard from Moore since the proposition was made.

Moore has a string of horses that he has raced during the winter in California, and is now at Oklahoma City. He wrote that his meet at Oklahoma City would close about July 1, but later word has been received that an extension had been secured, and he could not reach Paducah before the middle of July. P. A. Brady who is to act as presiding judge, is known to the horsemen.

Infant Dies.

The two-months-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Bryant, of 1515 South Fifth street, died this morning. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial at Oak Grove cemetery.

Paducah Southern Elects

Stockholders of the Paducah Southern Electric Railroad company held their annual meeting yesterday at the office of the company. Directors were elected and qualified. The new directorate met immediately and elected the following officers: President, J. F. Harth; vice-president, George Rush; secretary, H. H. Loving; treasurer, B. H. Scott; assistant secretary and treasurer, R. H. Scott; general manager, J. W. Williams.

This is the company that is planning the interurban from here to Union City via Mayfield. The company is now engaged upon the financing features of its plans and hopes to make some definite announcements in a few weeks.

More Parks Needed; They Increase Value

Applications for property on South Tenth street, filed with local real estate dealers, on condition that the boulevard plan goes through, indicate how much property will be enhanced by the improvement. The applications are all offers of a price well above the previous value of the land. The park is needed, too. Lang circle on Fountain avenue and the Caldwell park, as well as the court house yard, are overcrowded these hot nights with sweating humanity. One or two small parks, in addition to the boulevard strip, are contemplated; so that this together with the river front park will do something to give the people in the more densely populated sections breathing spaces with grass, and eventually shade.

Attempt Wreck

Buffalo, June 8.—The steel of the superstructure of the New York Central's uncompleted viaduct here was badly damaged by three charges of dynamite early today. Two immense deck plates were found on the bridge. It is believed to be an attempt made to wreck the first train to pass. The explosion startled the greater part of the city.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

ELECTED OFFICERS

Paducah lodge No. 26, Knights of Pythias, held its semi-annual election of officers on Monday night. The new roster is as follows: A. E. Stein, past chancellor, Robert Dukes, chancellor commander, L. M. Brooks, vice chancellor, T. E. Grasty, prelate, Walter Reams, master-at-arms, Robert E. Rudolph, inner guard, George Prince, outer guard, J. H. Householder, master-of-work. The installation of the above officers will take place the first regular meeting in July and will be conducted by R. L. Palmer, deputy of the lodge.

WILL CONSOLIDATE RURAL SCHOOLS AT LONE OAK COLLEGE

Try Experiment of Hauling Children to School by Contract.

Teachers' Institute Program
Being Arranged.

NOTES OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Part of the college building at Lone Oak will be leased by the county school board to centralize the Arcadia, Lone Oak and Lang school divisions, and give the free transportation of pupils to school a try-out in McCracken county. Prof. S. J. Billington, county school superintendent, feels that the new system will be a success in McCracken, as it has been tried throughout Indiana and Ohio, and even in some sections not as thickly settled as McCracken county. Residents of the county have endorsed the move, although the county school board will go slow about adopting the system in all school divisions.

In the Lang, Lone Oak and Arcadia schools sub-divisions five teachers were necessary to teach the pupils, where by consolidating the small schools into one at Lone Oak four teachers will be sufficient to teach the school. The first year there will be a saving on one teacher's salary, and this will be utilized to pay higher salaries to the county school teachers, and no effort will be made to extend the term the next session. By the arrangement 343 school children will be taught at the Lone Oak school, and every morning the wagons will take the children to school and take them home in the afternoon. The schedule will be arranged so that every pupil will be home in an hour and a half after the dismissal of school. The territory for the centralized school will include the pupils in the Arcadia neighborhood and on the Blandville and Hinkleville roads.

County Institute.

Preparation of the program for the county teachers' institute is under way by Prof. T. J. Coates, superintendent of the city schools of Richmond. Superintendent Billington has arranged to hold the county institute the week of August 9, and the county court house will be the place for the meeting. Professor Coates has presided over three county institutes in McCracken county, and his management has given satisfaction. The entire work of preparing the program was left with Professor Coates, who is expected to complete work in a short time. The program will be made up of papers and addresses by the county school teachers.

School Board.

Next Saturday the county school board will hold a called meeting for the purpose of accepting the bonds of the contractors, who secured the contracts for repairing and erecting the new county schools. It is probable that the specifications for the county high school will be ready, and no doubt, the board will adopt them as it is necessary to begin work on the new school soon in order that it may be completed in time for the next school session.

The election of the county teachers will be held the last Saturday in June. The election of county teachers will be held on that date over the entire state.

Public School Notes.

The rule, exempting students, who made a high grade in studies and deportment from examinations, has worked with success this year, according to J. A. Carnegie, superintendent.

Mrs. Nellie Tucker

Mrs. Nellie Tucker, 21 years old, died early this morning at her home in Tyler, after a lingering illness of consumption. Mrs. Tucker was the wife of Mr. J. W. Tucker and the two had been residents of Tyler for only two weeks, coming here from Almo, Ky. Mrs. Tucker will be taken to Almo this afternoon and the funeral and burial will be held tomorrow.

Sugar Fraud Prosecution.

New York, June 8.—When the trial of former employees of the American Sugar Refining company, open a week from Thursday the government will file the first gun for the conviction of what is alleged the biggest conspiracy to defraud the government in the history of the custom's service. The prosecutions will, it insists, if it can secure the conviction of minor employees, open the road for prosecution of those directly responsible.

News of Theatres

At the Kentucky theater tonight will be presented that delightful amateur production, "A Sylvan Symphony."

This delightful entertainment was presented at Wallace park Casino two evenings last week but the weather prevailing at the time was so abominable, rain falling in torrents on both occasions, that only a few attended the performance, but those few have been so loud in their praises of the production to their friends, who demanded that they be given an opportunity to witness it insisted upon its repetition, requesting Mrs. Wm. Deal to present it at the Kentucky, a more appropriate place than the Casino, on account of its capacity, equipment and convenience.

Yielding to this repeated request on the part of the general public, Mrs. Deal, who arranged and directed the production, consented and completed all necessary arrangements for the presentation of "A Sylvan Symphony" with Col. Farnbacher, of the Kentucky, tonight.

As the time required for a complete presentation of the production is rather lengthy, only one performance will be given during the evening starting promptly at 8:15. The doors

Something to Remember to Do at the Next Baseball Game You See.

An article that will be much discussed and widely read by baseball "fans," and also by those who occasionally go to a ball game, is Hugh S. Fullerton's "The Fine Points of the Game," in the May American Magazine. The following suggestion is made by the author as regards the mysterious and clever way in which baseball players signal to one another during the game:

"If you go to a baseball game this year watch and listen. Behind the 'e-Yah' of Jennings and the way he kicks up one foot and eats grass, you may catch his signal to the runner or batter. Back of Chance's war cries, 'At-a-boy,' or 'Now ye're pitching,' may be hidden a whole command to his team. When Matty shakes his head quickly he means 'no,' and when he shakes it just a little differently he means 'yes.' If you sit, real still and watch every move you'll enjoy the game lots more. But you won't watch. The first time Donlin bangs a two-bagger down that right field line you'll stand up on your seat and yell the top of your head off. You don't care much for the fine points—what you want is lots of hitting—and victory for the home team.

Never condemn a man's foolish actions until you are wise to his game.

We do not ask you to buy a refrigerator on our recommendation, as most other dealers do. We only ask that you place a HERRICK Refrigerator in your home, and let you decide for yourself whether it is as we represent, BEFORE YOU PAY; in this way you take no risk whatever. Isn't this fair enough to try?

Now is it not plain to you, that if we did not know positively, that the HERRICK REFRIGERATOR would do just what we represent it to do, we could not afford to make you this proposition?

Put a plate of salt in your refrigerator; (salt absorbs moist are you know), if the salt is wet tomorrow the refrigerator is dangerous. In the ordinary zinc refrigerator the air does not circulate properly; dampness accumulates and food becomes tainted and infected with putrid germs. Your safety lies in the purchase of a REFRIGERATOR that is guaranteed—

The Evening Sun's Daily Markets.

Louisville, Ky., June 8.—Cattle—Receipts 1,970. There was a very good attendance of buyers here, but owing to the liberal supply on sale, and unfavorable condition of other markets, the trade was slow, most grades of killing fat cattle sold 10 to 15c lower. Some few of the most desirable kinds of dry fed cattle went close to steady. Medium and half fat cows and greasers were easily 15 to 25c under a week ago. Choice bulls steady, medium and common lower, canners and cutters lower. Milch cows $2.50 to 5.00 per head lower. Not many heavy shipping cattle here, and that class was slow to a shade lower. The pens were only fairly well cleared. We quote: Shipping steers, $5.00 to 6.25; beef steers $3.50 to 5.75; fat heifers, $3.50 to 5.65; fat cows, $3.50 to 5.25; cutters, $2.25 to 3.50; canners, $1.00 to 2.25; bulls, $2.25 to 4.50; feeders, $3.50 to 4.90; stockers, $2.25 to 4.50; choice milch cows, $35 to 42; common to fair, $15 to 25.

Calves—Receipts 236. Market slow and a shade lower; bulk of the best, $6.00 to 6.50; some fancy shade higher; medium, $4.00 to 6.00; common, $2.50 to 4.00.

Hogs—Receipts 5,122. The market was very slow in opening; all other markets lower, and prices here were 10c lower all along the line; selected hogs, 165 lbs. and up, $7.40; 135 to 160 lbs., $7.00; pigs, $5.70 to 6.35; roughs, $6.35 down. Hogs from doubtful sections selling at a discount or under guarantee.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts 12,627. The market ruled steady on red lambs, tops $8.50; seconds, $6.25 to 6.75; butcher lambs and culls

Clarksville Tobacco.

Clarksville, Tenn., June 8.—The local tobacco market continues active. The receipts in this market this year will be heavier than for several years, shipments being made from all adjoining counties. The receipts in the independent market were 658 hogsheads; sales 216 hogsheads. The market continues strong at unchanged prices. The loose floor warehouses report sales amounting to 225,000 pounds. There is a very active demand for loose tobacco at prices entirely satisfactory to the sellers and will doubtless continue so as long as there is any loose tobacco to be sold. The planting season is nearly finished the new crop having about all been set out. The following prices are quoted: Trash, $4.00 to 4.50; low lugs, $4.75 to 5.25; common lugs, $5.25 to 5.75; medium lugs, $6.00 to 6.50; good lugs, $6.50 to 7.00; low leaf, $7.00 to 8.00; common leaf, $8.25 to 8.75; medium leaf, $9.00 to 10.00; good leaf, $10.50 to 12.00; fine leaf, $12.50 to 13.50; choice selections, $14.00 to 16.00.

Hopkinsville Tobacco.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 8.—With sales of 715 hogsheads of prized tobacco and about 500,000 pounds loose, to say nothing of heavy receipts by the rehandling houses, the past week eclipsed all records for activity that have been established during the past two or three years. Several times recently it was thought the high water mark in trading had certainly been reached and the ebbs would begin, but tobacco came from every direction last week to be offered for sale, while that already in storage was added with the result that in every branch buyers were represented in the deals and all seemed anxious for anything in their line. Along late in the week prices on some low grades showed a slight indication of weakening, but this is thought to be due to the heavy offerings and brisk trading earlier in the week, and not as showing any real decline in values. On the contrary, tobacco of all grades is expected to show an advance for some weeks yet.

Turkey's Royal Line.

In law and in practice all women of the sultan's harem are considered eligible to be mothers of sovereigns of the empire. It does not matter whether they are of royal blood or come of the humblest and most obscure stock. They may be of any nationality or country. It is not required that they shall be persons of distinction or intelligence. Their character and mental endowments are disregarded. On the father's side the case is very different. The sultans boast that their descent is direct from Othman, the founder of the reigning dynasty, who first made the Turks a power in the world. It is held to be vitally important that the Turkish royal house shall maintain its line of princes down from the first of the Ottoman sultans. But the mother of the monarch does not count. In the Turkish view, it is the father who makes the price worthy of the throne.—Boston Courier.

Shouldn't Miss the Show.

Among the hot dogs and breaking waves of Coney Island, a new attraction at one of the original biggest shows is called "The Wrath of God," and represents, with all the "horrible and revolting" details, the wiping out of a mining town by a flood—a judgment upon the wickedness of the West. Any dramatic representation which will drive home to human minds the awful wickedness of the West as opposed to the geographic righteousness of the East is a factor in civilization. We suppose those miners drank, out in that sink of sin. And maybe maybe they gambled! Let nobody miss this show.—New York Evening Sun.

ANOTHER LIBERAL OFFER TO BE MADE LIVE CONTESTANTS

Second Bonus in Great Voting Contest Announced Tomorrow.

Greatest Chance of All to Roll Up Big Score.

BOTH OLD AND NEW BUSINESS

BIG CAR AT BARDWELL.

Bardwell, June 8.—The big Ford touring car, first grand prize in The Sun contest, arrived here yesterday, after a splendid run from Fulton. The run was made by the way of Clinton and Arlington, and everywhere the car went it attracted attention. It will be in Wickliffe tomorrow.

The second bonus will be announced tomorrow.

Contestants in The Sun and Associate Newspapers' Great Voting Contest are invited to watch tomorrow's issue of The Sun for the most liberal extra vote offer that will be made during the contest. This will be an offer that will stir contestants to redoubled efforts and make the next ten days of the contest exciting throughout western Kentucky and southern Illinois.

All business turned in since Monday past will count in taking advantage of this exceptional offer and contestants are urged to make the best of their time in securing both NEW and OLD business. Now is the time to get busy. Make every day count. Make lists of everyone you can hear about who is a subscriber or a possible subscriber and go to see him. Tell your friends you are in to win and you want their help. You will get it. Everybody loves a winner; be a winner.

And don't forget to look for the exact terms of the second bonus offer which will be published in tomorrow's Sun.

Comparatively few contestants took advantage of the first bonus and no candidate at this time has a lead that cannot be equalled and surpassed by a few days of active work. The low scores so far are no disappointment to the contest management, experienced in such matters, but they should be a source of encouragement to candidates who have so far done little work. It is not too late to enter and win, but those considering their chances of success are urged to act immediately.

If you are not already at work, get a book and get busy. Get the details. Find out how to be among the fortunate few who will share in the distribution of the TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR PRIZE LIST. It is all very simple and it doesn't require a cent to win. The opportunity is before you. Will you take it?

FLUSH KIDNAPED

JASPER CRUM FOUND IN COMPANY WITH A WOMAN.

Discovered in the Mountains of Virginia—Entire Plot Exposed.

Inez, Ky., June 8.—After a search of four days and nights Jasper Crum, the man who was supposed to have been kidnapped from his wife and family by a mysterious woman, has been found. Crum, in company with a woman, was discovered by Crum's brother and five friends at a mining camp on Beech creek, in West Virginia.

Investigation proved that the kidnapping of Crum was a preconcerted plan concocted by Crum and the woman to elope. It also proved that Crum and the woman had known each other for a period of 15 years, and that he had called on her several times since his marriage.

When the searching party discovered Crum and the woman they attempted to run, but were forthwith brought to bay by the pursuing parties threatening to fire on them. Crum was brought back to his home by his brother and the woman was left in the mountains.

Crum's wife is still demented and did not recognize her husband when he was brought back. On account of her condition Mrs. Crum has not been brought before the court to be tried as to her sanity. Crum broke down and wept bitterly when he met his wife.

Daily Thought.
The greatest verities are found by loyalty to small truths.

We suggest to the fiscal court the advisability of expunging from its record that otherwise perpetual monument to its folly, which it adopted yesterday.

A REBUKE TO THE CLERGY OF PADUCAH.

The News-Democrat makes two admissions today that are worthy of comment, considering the source. It regrets exceedingly that the fiscal court adopted those outrageous resolutions regarding Mrs. Crane. It's regret, however, extends no further than the fiscal court. It has no censure for the author of the resolutions, County Judge Lightfoot, and the only comment the paper made on his conduct was that "her criticism of the county sanitarium was not on the whole just." So we may assume that it approves of Judge Lightfoot's conduct throughout the affair.

But the paper also admits that it would be right to give the pauper dead a Christian burial. Cannot we now hope, eventually the News-Democrat will admit that the indigent sick of the county are entitled to special diet, prepared by some one other than a mentally deficient pauper; to the special care of a trained nurse; cleanliness and freedom from the danger of tuberculosis infection, and that those nervous wrecks should not be compelled to sleep in the room with corpses, awaiting the arrival of daylight and the coroner? All this is predicated on the assumption, that if they are entitled to spiritual ministrations after they are dead, they are entitled to some bodily ministrations while alive.
In other words, is not a living pauper entitled to as much consideration
as a dead one?

We suspect that the News-Democrat was driven to its acknowledgment through a realization of the shock to the public sense of decency
at the knowledge that the county's poor are buried like dogs out there;
but we do not believe the ministers of the city deserve the rebuke administered to them in the same editorial.
Perhaps, driven to the alternative of laying the blame for disgraceful conditions on the county administration or on the preachers, the politics of the News-Democrat proved stronger than its religion. We feel quite sure that the ministers of Paducah do now, and always have, stood ready to minister to the sick, comfort the dying and say the last rites over the dead poor of the county; but they have not been wanted and have not been notified.

We do not make any charge
against the News-Democrat wantonly.
We have read and re-read the editorial this morning, and we will quote it in extenso herewith, leaving it to the intelligent interpretation of our readers to judge whether the News-Democrat does not charge the ministers, instead of the administration, with neglect of duty.

It says:
"The consciousness of one fact at least has been born home to us
through the recent visit of Mrs.
Crane to the city. There is no one who would for a moment withhold from those unfortunates on whom the sunshine of good fortune has been withheld, the gracious privilege of Christian enlightenment and ministerial attention. Especially is this necessary when the hand of death is laid upon any of the inmates, and Christian burial should give sanctity

to their interment.

"The ministers of Paducah should realize that these poor unfortunates have absolutely nothing; they are bereft of friends and home and an All-Wise Providence demands that those who can shall give to those who need. They need religious awakening as a foundation for happiness and calm sermons preached.
INVOKING ALSO THE NECESSITY OF SANITATION AND CLEANLINESS
AND thorough religion, to give them a happy thought that their future will be brighter by being religious. It is the duty of our ministers to see the unfortunates in our city and in the county sanitarium, giving them that happiness through religious fervor
that will buoy them, in their unfortunate condition. It would be more charitable and in God's eye a duty
performed MORE THAN THE CON-STANT AGGRESSIVE AGITATION
FOR REFORM IN DIRECTIONS THAT MEAN NO REFORM AND ONLY DEMORALIZATION.

"It is in this instance well indeed to remember that 'as much as you have done it unto the least of these ye have done unto Me (sic).'"

Peace, gentle peace; perpetual, unbroken peace, is gradually enshroud-ing bloody Breathitt. Dr. Cox, and Marcum, Jim Hargis and Cockerill are at peace. Ed Callahan is at the doorway of everlasting peace. It's Breath-itt's way.

The Citizens' Improvement association of Frankfort tabled a motion, condemning the recent lynching, and now the members desire the papers to apologize for them; because they thought their association had nothing to do with that kind of improvement.

It was unfortunate that the fiscal court acted before its members had a chance to read The Sun's editorial, admonishing them as to their duty,
and the ministerial association adjourning before the ministers had a chance to read the News-Democrat's editorial, instructing them in their duty.

How many housewives in Paducah have asked their bakers about the condition of their kitchens, their milk men about their dairies and their butchers about their slaughterhouses, the cold storage, and the condition of their shops? Sanitation, after all, in this respect, is but the application of careful housekeeping methods to the preparation of foods.
What boots it for a woman to be clean
about the cooking if the food is dirty when it arrives? This is a work for the housekeepers, and when the butcher, milkman and baker learn that women are inquiring, they will be careful.

The speech of Secretary MacVeagh
before the Chicago Commercial club,
in which he declared that President Taft favors revision of the tariff
"down," though not "down and out";
has created more interest than any other public speech made since the immigration. President Taft has not openly menaced congress; but this cabinet officer is believed to have waived the big stick, gently forthwith
and at a distance from Washington,
and the statement has been enough
to give rise to rumors in Washington that the president and Aldrich are out. If the president succeeds in forcing a righteous revision, the result will not be satisfactory, of course, to free traders; but it is fair to assume, that when the country took Taft at his word, it endorsed the theory of protection with a reasonable reduction of rates, where possible.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Rev. E. G. Cunningham, Universalist preacher of Little Rock, Ark., who upholds Sunday amusements, says there is no room in this country for a sectarian Sabbath. The trouble with Dr. Cunningham's position is, that if we don't have a sectarian Sabbath we won't have any Sabbath at all. The only people, who keep the Sabbath, keep it as sectar-ians. Those who spend Sunday seeking amusements make other people work. Drop the sectarian Sabbath, and just as sure as the Bible gave it to us, we will lose the Sabbath altogether and everybody will work seven days a week. Let those who scorn religion and enjoy their day of rest, remember whence that day of rest comes, and beware of falling into habits that must tend toward its abolition.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

The quick observation of Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane was the subject of conversation by those, who had been favored with a personal talk with that interesting woman. Not only in work of pointing the way for better sanitation, but in every line
Mrs. Crane had the ability to observe closely and grasp the essentials.
Soon after her arrival in Paducah she was talking with a few friends when she said: "Never that I can recall do I remember of knowing so many men
with surnames for Christian names, and girls with boys' names. It is a fact that I have noticed in my tour of Kentucky, and I find that it is true in the western part of the state as well as in other divisions. It is a custom that seems to be native of Kentucky; for in my travels in other states I do not recall a similar experience."

In eleven seconds the steel frame
of one of the large freight engines
at the Illinois Central railroad shops was welded yesterday. It was a process tried for the first time in the Paducah shops, although it is in use in several places. Aside from the novelty of the welding it is a spectacular piece of work, and attracted the attention of the railroad officials. The break was repaired by the use of thermite, a patent composition, which welded the broken parts together, and the frame was as strong as before. The frame of engine 840 was heated at the fracture to the temperature of 75 degrees. Above it was placed the thermite in a crucible,
and under it a discharge of powder.
When the right temperature was reached the powder was set off, and in turn the thermite was set in operation. In a second it flashed around the broken frame, and the temperature of the steel was raised to 5,400 degrees, and in eleven seconds the frame was mended. The saving in money is enormous as it would be necessary to remove the machinery and take the frame into the blacksmith shop before it could be welded.
However, for some time the frames
of the locomotives have been welded by heating the frame with oil and compressed air, but the work is much slower than by the new process,
which will be used in the shops now.
When the powder is discharged there is an array of sparks, and the thermite fills the crack in the frame, but the broken place is repaired before the bystander can realize what has happened.

"Rising Sun" has been suggested as a name for the new city park on the river bank at the intersection of Kentucky avenue and Water street.
Aside from the fact that the name is particularly appropriate it digs back into the early history of Paducah
when it was a small river town. Evansville, Ind., which is located on the opposite bank of the Ohio river and receives the last rays of the sun, has a park on the river named "Sunset Park" and it has been suggested by an old citizen that it would not be a misnomer to name Paducah's park
"Rising Sun," because old Sol first peeps on the river bank these glorious June mornings. Back in 1830
Captain Valentine Owen, who operated Paducah's first ferry, was proprietor of a hotel located on the site of the new park. It bore the name of "Rising Sun," and was the one big place in Paducah. Few of the present citizens can remember the old hotel, but to name the park after the hotel would be appropriate.

FOSTER CALLED AN UNDESIRABLE

Chicago Professor Asked to Yield Up Ordination.

His Recent Writings On the "Function of Religion" Have Brought Forth Scathing Denunciation.

BY THE BAPTIST CLERGY

Chicago, June 8.—Prof. George
B. Foster, whose writings, denounced as "bitter indictments of the Christian religion before the bar of skepticism," have horrified the clergy of Chicago, was today called upon by Rev. Johnston Myers, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist church, to withdraw from the Baptist ministry and to yield up his ordination papers.

A motion to this effect was put before the several hundred preachers and church laymen gathered at the conference of the Baptist executive council, and only the objection of one man, Professor A. K. Parker, who, like Foster, is an instructor at the University of Chicago, prevented the instantaneous eviction of the author of "The Function of Religion,"
by practically a unanimous vote.

Undesirable Baptist.
Parker prevented the action by calling attention to the constitutional provision preventing the action without a week's deliberation. The matter was accordingly postponed until June 14. It was after Foster had been characterized as an undesirable Baptist and as a teacher
"who would debase the church and defy evolution," that the effort to eject him from the councils of the denomination was made.

"Foster declared," cried Rev.
Mathews in the course of his discussion of the recent book penned by Foster, "that one who calls himself
a believer in the bible is a knave.
Thank heaven I'm a knave."

"May I ask how the word is spelled?" interrupted Parker at this point.

"K-n-a-v-e," replied the speaker.

"If you will pardon the correction," observed Parker, "I have the book in my hand and the word is spelled 'n-a-i-v-e'."

SCHOOL NOTES

tendent of the city schools. As yet no figures have been received by Professor Carnegie as to the number of pupils exempt from all examination, but it is believed that the number will be from one-third to one-half of the school attendance. It will be next week before all the reports are in, and the figures are obtained. In the high school the plan worked with great success.

The Senior Play.
Tomorrow night the senior play,
"The Three Graces," will be presented at the High school auditorium by the members of the senior class. The play was written by Miss Clara Smith
a member of the class, and is a story of life at a girl's college. The class has been rehearsed by Miss Adah Brazelton and Prof. W. A. Evans, of the High school faculty. The play will be given on class night.

The cast for the play will be as follows:

Jaqueline Allison—Miss Clara
Smith.

Madge Murfee—Katherine Rock.

Geneva Weislon—Julia Danby.

Elizabeth Barrett—Allie D. Foster.

Ruth Hayden—Aimee Dreyfuss.

Miss Sims—William Wilhelm.

Bob Talbot—Edwin Mitchell.

Professor Uppercrust—John Rink-cliffe.

Mr. Allison—Frank Luftenburg.

Mrs. Allison—William Wilhelm.

The first act represents a girl's room the night of commencement after the reception. The second is the same, the night after the recital and the third is the library scene the next morning.

Parodies will be sung on the following songs: "What's the Use," by Clara Smith; "College Life," by Clara Smith, Aimee Dreyfuss, Julia Dan-
by, Allie D. Foster and Katherine Rock; "Love is Like a Game of Cards," by Allie D. Foster; "Oh, You
Kid," by Julia Danby; "I'm Married Now," by William Wilhelm;
"That Lonely Feeling," by John Rin-cliffe; "Old Glory," by the entire chorus.

Commencement Tickets.

Tickets for the commencement
Thursday night are moving lively.
The tickets have been placed in the hands of the students for sale, and a large audience is expected this year for the commencement. All tickets purchased from the children may be taken to the Kentucky theater and exchanged for reserved seats. The box office of the theater will open Thursday morning at 9 o'clock for the purpose of selling tickets and exchanging reserved seats for the tickets.

JUDGES

ELECTED IN STATE OF ILLINOIS YESTERDAY.

Republicans Win Majority of Contests in Chicago and Over the State.

Chicago, June 8.—The Republican party won a majority of the races in the judicial election here. The Republicans elected were one judge of the superior court and eight in the circuit court. The Democrats won six places in the circuit court. Following are the successful candidates:

Superior court—Theodore Brentano, Republican.
Circuit court—John Gibbons, Richard S. Tuttle, Kiekham Scanlan,
George A. Carpenter, Merritt W.
Pickney, Frederick A. Smith, Jesse
A. Baldwin, Adol J. Pett, Republicans. George Kersten, Lockwood Ho-more, Julian W. Mack, Charles M.
Walker, Thomas G. Windes, Frank
Baker, Democrats.

In Seventh District.
Springfield, Ill., June 8.—James A.
Creighton, of Springfield, Owen P.
Thompson, of Jacksonville, and Robert
B. Shirley, of Carlinville, Democrats, were elected judges today in the Seventh judicial district.

Seventeenth District.
Rockford, Ill., June 8.—A. H.
Forst, of Rockford, C. H. Donnelly, of Woodstock, and Robert W. Wright, of Rockford, were re-elected judges
for the Seventeenth district.

At Cairo.

Cairo, Ill., June 8.—In the election
yesterday in Cairo Judge Butler received 555 votes, Judge Duncan 550.
Judge Lewis 542, and Ingraham (socialist) 50. In the county Judges Butler, Duncan and Lewis received about 800 majority each. A very light vote was polled in Cairo because a great many forgot it was election day, and there were no competitors.

In the other counties the result was about the same, according to partial returns received. There were no Democratic candidates in the field.

STORMS

DO MUCH DAMAGE BEYOND THE MISSISSIPPI.

Bridges Washed Out and Railroad Tracks are Under Water
In Places.

Des Moines, June 8.—A cloudburst caused much damage to property and tied up train service on the Great Western all day between Sharon City and Diagonal. Not a train ran over the system from St. Joseph to Des Moines. Almost 16 miles of track was washed out by the flood at Sharon alone. At Mount Ayre the heaviest rain in 20 years fell.
All of Ringold county reports heavy damage from floods to livestock and crops. All streams in southern Iowa are higher than they have been since the flood of July 4, 1889.

Thousands of acres of growing crops are ruined.

Track Under Water.

Lincoln, June 8.—Seven inches of rain at Hebron and four inches at Pleasant Dale caused floods and serious damage in and near those towns.
Near Pleasant Dale 200 feet of the Burlington railroad track was under two feet of water and trains were halted for 10 hours.

On the McCook division of the Burlington there have been two washouts of track, one between Strange and Invale, and one west of McCook.

A Burlington freight engine and four cars went into the ditch on account of the soft track. No one was injured.

Crops in the flooded district have been washed badly.

Funston Shoots at an Intruder.

Leavenworth, Kan., June 8.—Brigadier General Frederick Funston, the commander of the army service schools at Fort Leavenworth, engaged in a revolver fight with supposed burglars in his quarters at the post.
The man escaped and Funston was unharmed. Funston had retired late and remained awake.

He had been in bed perhaps an hour when the closet door opened and a man stepped forth. The general saw him and snatched under his pillow for his revolver.
The intruder saw the motion and fired, the bullet piercing the mattress near the general who leaped to his feet. He turned on the lights and fired three shots as the man fled.

Dr. Dodd at Georgetown.

Speaking of the commencement of the Georgetown college the Lexington Herald says: "At 8 o'clock of the evening an audience was again in readiness. Again the music department rendered an enjoyable program, after which the Rev. M. E. Dodd, of Paducah, preached the sermon before the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., text: "What think ye of Christ?"
His words were timely, and his address eloquent and pleasing and greatly enjoyed by all present."

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Her Fifth Birthday.

An enjoyable party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Leo, of 1729 Monroe street, Thursday evening, in honor of the fifth birthday of their little daughter, Martha. She was the recipient of many nice presents. The guests were: Little Misses Nellie Berger, Nellie Bell, Guthrie and Edna Thornberry, Edna Leo, Masters Harold and Albert Jones, Hugh and Edwin Elder, Lenard and Edwin Hargrove, Frank, Edwin and Paul Berger, Austin Leo.

Call Meeting for Wednesday Afternoon.

The Ramsey society of the Broadway Methodist church will have a called meeting at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the church. It is an important meeting and the members are urged to be present.

Wedding of Miss Mullarkey and Mr. Nangle Tomorrow.

The marriage of Miss Della Mullarkey and Mr. Henry Nangle will be solemnized Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. It will be a nuptial high mass and the Rev. Father Connolly will perform the ceremony.

Miss Mamie Kilcoyne, a cousin of the bride, will be the maid of honor and Mr. Fred Flanagan is the best man.

The bride will wear a pretty creation of white satin and lace with a picture hat and will carry her prayer book. The maid of honor will be gowned in white silk with hat.

The bridal party and relatives will be entertained at a wedding breakfast at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Thomas Kilcoyne, 905 Trimble street.

In the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock a reception will be given in honor of the bride and bridegroom at the home of Mrs. Kilcoyne. The wedding colors white and green will be carried out in the decorations.

The couple will leave at 6:15 o'clock for an extended wedding trip to Chicago, New York, Baltimore and Washington. The bride's going-away gown is of grey with hat, shoes and gloves to harmonize. Mr. and Mrs. Nangle will be at home at 1048 Monroe street on their return.

Mr. E. P. Kilcoyne, of the Kilcoyne Electrical company of Cairo, will be an out-of-town guest at the wedding. He is a cousin of the bride.

Others who will attend from a distance are: Mr. and Mrs. John Kilcoyne, of Mobile, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kilcoyne, of Fancy Farm; Mrs. M. A. Stanton, of Jennings, La., and a number of Mr. Nangle's friends from Princeton.

Miss Mullarkey is an attractive young woman with a wide circle of friends. She makes her home with her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Kilcoyne, 905 Trimble street. Mr. Nangle is connected with the Illinois Central railroad of this city, and is a popular man.

Mr. Taft at the Theater.

Daisy Fitzhugh Ayres in her Washington letter notes an incident that marks our big president as "big" in every sense of the word:

"The other night Mr. Taft and his retinue occupied a box at a fashionable theater, to see the presentation of a new piece. He came to praise, but skipped to scoff. The show was of a questionable character, at least, it wasn't questionable at all, which is about the same thing in the end. It simply wouldn't do. If such pernicious 'little tales' had to be told before the public of these United States, the president of these United States would not lend countenance to the telling. There were scenes in the play distinctly in bad taste. At the close of the first act, Mr. Taft quietly gathered up his sister-in-law and his Captain Butt and trotted out of the theater, leaving an eloquent emptiness in the box so festively decorated with flags and roses, in his honor. And he never came back. The players were disconcerted. Three cheers for Mr. Taft and the dominion of decency! The little presidential incident though most unobtrusively executed, had its due weight with the theater-going public."

Mr. Abram Sloan Marries Miss Jacobson, of Memphis.

Cards announcing the marriage of Mr. Abram Lewis Sloan and Miss Eliza Howe Jacobson in Memphis, Tenn., on Monday, June 7, have been received here by friends of the bridegroom who was a popular Paducah boy. The wedding was a quiet home affair. The couple will be at home after June 20 at 1152 Lane avenue, corner Lewis street, Memphis.

Mr. Sloan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sloan, 503 North Seventh street Paducah. He is a popular young man and a graduate of the Paducah schools. He occupies the responsible position of business manager of the Merchants' Credit association of Memphis, and is in charge of the office there. Mrs. Sloan is a daughter of Mr. Charles Jacobson, a prominent Jewish citizen of Memphis. She is a striking-looking girl and is delightfully talented as a musician. She visited Miss Janet Sloan, of this city, last Christmas and made many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan will visit Paducah in a few weeks.

Of the marriage today's Commercial Appeal says:

"A pretty wedding, very quietly celebrated, took place last evening, when Miss Eliza Howe Jacobson became the bride of Abram Lewis Sloan. The wedding was a very quiet affair and was only witnessed by relatives and a few most intimate friends. The ceremony took place at 7:30, Rabbi M. Samfield officiating. There were no attendants, and Mr. Sloan and his bride left immediately on their bridal tour. Both the bride and groom are very popular in Jewish social circles, where their marriage is of much interest. After June 20 Mr. and Mrs. Sloan will be at home to their friends in their new home, 1152 Lane avenue."

River Picnic Postponed.

The Ladies of the Christian church have postponed a moonlight excursion on the river announced for Thursday evening, on account of the commencement exercises to be held on the evening of Thursday, June 10.

Approaching Marriage of Interest.

Invitations have been received here announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Barbara Powell, of New Orleans, and Dr. Herbert J. Page, of Texarkana, Texas. The date is June 17. Miss Powell has visited in Paducah and has a number of acquaintances here.

Enjoyable River Ride.

Mrs. Percy Paxton and Mrs. Watson Bockman are chaperoning a party of young girls this afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock on the river. The party includes: Mrs. Paxton, Mrs. Bockman, Misses Lucile Well, Almee Dreyfus, Fred Paxton, Elizabeth Boswell, Mary Cave and Barbara Nell Paxton.

Marriage of Interest Here.

The Jackson Sun says:

"Invitations are out announcing the approaching marriage of Dr. G. H. Savage, of Memphis, to Miss Neva Hall, of Martin, Tenn., on the 15th inst., at the home of the bride's parents."

"Dr. Savage is the son of Dr. G. M. Savage, formerly of the Union University, now of the Hall-Moody Institute, Martin. Owing to the recent death of the groom's sister, Mrs. L. L. Fonville, the wedding will be a quiet affair."

Dr. Savage is a brother of Mrs. M. E. Dodd, of this city. Dr. Dodd and Mrs. Dodd will attend the wedding.

Sophomore Reception.

This evening at the High school the sophomore class will entertain with a reception at the High school in honor of the senior class. The class colors, of purple and gold will be used in the decorations and the class flower, the sweet pea, will be in evidence. Music will be enjoyed during the evening.

Mrs. John Swift Montgomery, Jr., of Thomasville, Ga., will arrive about the first of July on an extended visit to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Houston Winstead.

The Rev. Keener E. Rudolph, student at Emory and Henry college, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rudolph, at Lone Oak. The son of the Rev. W. J. Naylor, a student at Emory and Henry, will visit Asheville before returning home.

Mrs. G. Porter Adams and little son left this afternoon for Bowling Green on a month's visit to relatives.

Mrs. George Crouch and son, Master Lawrence Crouch, of Clarksville, Tenn., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus G. Singleton.

Mrs. Bartley Smith and daughter, of East St. Louis, who have been visiting relatives, returned home today.

Mrs. H. H. Cleugh, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. S. H. Clark, 901 Clay street, left today for Helena, Mont. After a visit she will meet her husband and they will attend the Seattle exposition, after which they will spend the summer on Mr. Cleugh's ranch in British Columbia.

Miss Maggie Chester, who has been visiting Mrs. B. D. Johnston, 1232 South Seventh street, returned to her home in Kirksey today.

Mr. Robert Wallace left last night for Princeton, N. J., to attend a reunion of his class. Mr. Wallace was graduated from Princeton university last year.

Night Riders Again.
San Antonio, June 8.—Night riders appeared again in this county last night. The sheriff today is searching with bloodhounds. Fert and Coyle's gin and feed house at Elmendorf, were destroyed by fire. The loss is $10,000.

Duel With Knives.

San Antonio, June 8.—James Sallinas and Charles Suarez quarreled over a girl and fought a duel with knives while locked in a room today. Both were dying when found. Sallinas had 21 stab wounds.

Great Prosperity Coming.

New York, June 8.—The end of the Roosevelt administration, a quick settlement of the tariff question, and assurances of excellent crops are given as a three fold basis for prophesying the approach of a period of great national prosperity in the annual report of the Consolidated Stock Exchange today.

Christian Science Election.

Boston, June 8.—The board of directors of the Mother Church of Christian Science elected William P. McKensie president; Stephen A. Chase, of Fall River, treasurer; John V. Dittmore, of New York, clerk, the latter succeeding William B. Johnson, resigned.

Boys Held as Peons.

San Antonio, June 8.—Six recent kidnappings caused intense excitement and the police today are investigating. The boys stolen, the police believe, have been taken to various railroad construction camps and held under a system of peonage. They are searching all railroad camps. It is believed the boys are not being held for ransom.

Against the Third Degree.

Chicago, Ill., June 8.—Resolutions condemning the "third degree" methods used by the police to obtain information from criminals were adopted by the criminologists at the conference here today. John H. Willis, of St. Paul, former judge, declared prisoners are beaten with padded gloves and rubber hose so as not to leave any mark and kept awake several nights in order to get their nerves unstrung until they are ready to tell any story to escape torture.

Police Court.

Using insulting language—Mitchell Jackson, fined $5 on motion of the prosecuting attorney. Breach of peace—Arthur Bounds, continued to June 9. C. C. Lee and T. C. Emerson, Lee fined $5 and Emerson fined $1. Malicious assault and wounding with intent to kill—Claud English and Horace English, continued to June 15. Drench & Butze plead guilty and were fined $2 for violating the Sabbath.

In Circuit Court.

Little was doing in circuit court today. Judge William Reed has a number of cases under advisement.

The jury in the case of Edgar Egbert Holt against Louis Bell Holt, failed to agree, and late yesterday afternoon was dismissed. This morning the case was set for the eighth day of the October term.

Judgment was given for $90 in the case of the Fidelity Trust company, administrator of the estate of Mrs. Bettie Buckner, against C. A. Wells. An order was issued to sell sufficient property to satisfy the judgment.

In County Court.

The will of J. A. Greer was probated.

$15FOR BOULEVARD
ON TENTH STREET*Park Commissioners Make Arguments.*County and City Drainage Proposition Ready for the Conference Committee.*EGG AND BUTTER REGULATION

Members of the board of park commissioners appeared before the councilmen, who met last night in regular session at the city hall, in connection with the plan on foot to make Tenth street a boulevard from Kentucky avenue to Jackson street. The park commissioners presented a map, showing the exact number of feet of property that would have to be purchased by the city, and figures, showing just about how much the cost of each piece of property would be. Mr. E. J. Paxton and Mr. H. C. Rhodes, both members of the park board, addressed the council, giving data as to how much it would enhance the value of property and how much it meant to the city to boulevard Tenth street. The boulevard will extend to Husbands street from Broadway when finished. On motion of Councilman Young, the finance committee was instructed to work in conjunction with the park commissioners to ascertain the actual cost of buying this property and report back to the council.

A communication from City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., was received, but no action was taken on it. The communication explained just what the process should be for the council to pursue in order to extend the city limits.

The Illinois Ferry company, which recently purchased the ferryboat business of the Owen Bros. Ferry company, offered its bond, which was accepted.

Northwestern Drainage.
City Engineer L. A. Washington reported that all the estimates for the drainage of the north end of the city are completed and it was recommended that a committee of four be appointed from the city, two from each board, to act with the committee of three appointed from the county by Judge Lightfoot, to investigate the specifications. The report of the city engineer was received and filed and Councilmen Bower and Hannin were appointed on the committee from the lower board.

Sale of Letter and Eggs.
On recommendation of Milk and Meat Inspector Dr. Ed P. Farley and Health Officer Dr. H. P. Sights, the ordinance committee was instructed to bring in an ordinance, regulating the sale of butter and eggs in the city. All butter must be kept in clean, soft paper and not mixed, and eggs must be labeled fresh or cold storage. Other business from the ordinance committee was a resolution granting Earl Palmer permission to construct a concrete curb and gutter on both sides of an alley, at his own expense to the depth of his property, from Broadway to Jefferson street.

between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets. The resolution was given first and second passage. An ordinance, providing for the grading and graveling of an alley between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets from Broadway to Jefferson street, was given first and second passage.

An ordinance, providing for the construction of concrete sidewalks and gutter with granite curbing on both sides of Eleventh street from Broadway to Jefferson streets, was given two passages.

An ordinance, fixing the price of $6 per grave for all single graves sold in Oak Grove cemetery, was given one passage on the following vote: Yeas—Councilmen Foreman, Duvall, Hannin, Kreutzer, Lally, McCarty and Van Meter. Nays—Councilmen Bower, Mayer, Wanner, Wilson and Young. A motion to suspend the rules and read the ordinance by its title and put it on its second passage was lost on the same vote, as it takes two-thirds of the members present to suspend the rules.

The street car ordinance, which was drawn for the purpose of having the Union station cars run to First street and Broadway, but said that the cars could make the loop-around Fourth street, Kentucky avenue, Third street and Broadway, was sent back to the ordinance committee, as it did not answer the purpose.

An ordinance, creating the office of delinquent tax collector, was given first and second passage. In this ordinance the general council was given the power to elect a man to this office for a period of one year at a time.

The ordinance committee was instructed to bring in an ordinance, regulating the parks in the city. The report of City Treasurer Walters and City Auditor Kirkland, showing a balance on hand of $4,761.44, was received and filed. The report of the joint finance committee, showing accounts to the amount of $12,506.55, was received and allowed. The report of Milk and Meat Inspector Dr. Ed P. Farley for May was received and ordered printed. The report of Chief of Police James Collins for May, showing collections of $672, revolving $140, on hand for collection $73, was received and filed.

The mayor was authorized to borrow money for the city to pay contingent accounts, providing the city needs it.

Public Improvements.

On recommendation of the public improvement committee J. A. Rudy & Son was given the contract to furnish the city engineer's office with lineoleum. The cost is $52 and is to be paid out of the contingent fund. The public improvement committee recommended that the Art Metal Construction company be let the contract for furnishing the files and shelves for the vault in the city engineer's office at a cost of $312. The money to be paid out of the contingent fund. The recommendation was ratified.

L. L. Jones asked to be exempted from poll tax. The communication was received and filed. George C. Crumbaugh asked that the assessment on his property be lowered. The request was referred to the board of supervisors.

City Jailer Clark on his request was allowed money to buy varnish to refinish the desks and chairs in the council chamber and he was also instructed to screen the windows.

A communication from the board of public works, recommending that the city pay Jewell & Son $400, as

NEW RECORD OF HIGH PRICE

Established For July Wheat
at $1.20 3-8.

Heavy Buying By the Elevator Interests—Bears Admit Being Against Stone Wall.

BIG COUNTRY CORN PROFITS

Chicago, June 8.—There was a new record established for July wheat last week, that month selling up to $1.20 3-8, which is 1 cent higher than all previous records for the year. The upturn started on Tuesday, the first business day following the end of the May deal, when fears of impending congestion in July wheat started shorts to covering. The high point was reached on Wednesday, when there was a rush of buying orders, belated shorts bidding against new investors for the rather scanty offerings. The pace set in the early part of the week was not kept up, however, for later on the owners of July were putting it on the market in liberal quantities, meanwhile replacing principally for December delivery. The result was a decided narrowing of differences between the two months.

Wheat was taking the course naturally to be expected at this season of the year, although speculative operations hastened the ordinary adjustment process. The fact that the level of values was higher than usual, and discounts for deferred months phenomenally large also probably hastened the readjustment.

Elevator Men Invest.

In addition to heavy and persistent buying of July and buying of September by the Bartlett-Patten following, there also was heavy buying by elevator interests, headed by the Armour Grain company and Peavey. Meanwhile the new investment demand, which was of fair volume throughout the week, was principally directed toward September. There was much selling of July wheat that was not replaced for more deferred delivery. This selling was headed by Logan-Bryan, Harris-Winthrop, Hubbard-Warren-Chandler and the Armour Grain company.

Southwestern receipts have been running less than 25 per cent of those of a year ago and came mainly from Chicago stocks. Shipments from Chicago have been quite heavy. The Ohio crop report, showing an improvement of 7 points since May, and following the Kentucky report, showing 9 points improvement in the same time, was an influence against July values and helped to offset the effect of light receipts.

Last week brought further vindication of the Patten position that there had been no corner in wheat. On Wednesday red winter wheat sold in St. Louis at $1.65. This was 5 cents higher than any previous price reached while the alleged May corner was on. No. 2 was $1.60, with No. 2 hard at $1.47. No. 2 red in Kansas City was $1.56 and No. 2 hard was at $1.36. Millers are contracting for wheat in interior Kansas at $1.04, a farmer selling his crop of 400 acres at that price to the Hogan Milling company at Junction City. Texas mills have been bidding $1.25 to farmers for new wheat when ready to market.

With these inducements to the farmer the present indications are that there will be fairly large and early offerings of the new crop wheat. The sagacity shown by the producer in marketing his grain in the last year is not likely to fail him this year. It is therefore hardly probable that he will overlook the high early market and wait until his property comes into competition with an unusually stimulated large crop of spring wheat later.

Bears Against Stone Wall.

The gossip among the traders on July wheat has been bullish. Even the bears who believe that crop conditions do not warrant any advance say that there is no use of their going against a stone wall as July is heavily oversold and with the bull leaders in control of the cash market, and with supplies decreasing over 2,000,000 bushels a week, with an increasing cash demand and very little wheat outside of Chicago, Minnesota and Duluth, the bear had no show. Traders who have been right on the market for months say that the discount of July under cash wheat was too big a handicap and that as long as the bears continue to sell all of the deferred futures at a big discount the bull has the best of it, just as the bear has when the bulls are paying the big carrying charges.

Snow's Report.

B. W. Snow's report on the wheat crop for June 1 was given considerable attention by the trade. The report estimated the acreage of winter wheat at 27,546,000 acres, against 30,482,000 acres harvested last year. During May the crop declined seriously west of the Missouri river. The general average was placed at 80.3 on May 1. In Texas the present condition was reported at 50 per cent, against 60 last month. Oklahoma, 71, against 77; Kansas, 75, against 85, and Nebraska, 79, against 83. The per cent acreage and condition indicates a yield of about 375,000,000 bushels, against a harvest of 439,000,000 bushels last year. Spring wheat acreage was placed at 18,247,000 acres, against 17,821,000 acres in 1908. The present condition is about normal for this date, 93.4 per cent against 93.5 last year. The Snow report indicated the total spring wheat yield of 285,000,000 bushels. This makes an estimate of the total wheat crop of 660,000,000 bushels, which compares with 664,692,000 bushels as the final official yield harvested in 1908.

September and July wheat each gained 1 cent in price last week, while December advanced 1 1/2 cents.

Sharp Advance in Corn.

Corn prices advanced sharply last week despite the splendid crop promise, large acreage and almost ideal weather conditions. The potent factor was the cash situation. Shorts in July delivery, finding no disposition on the part of the cash corn market to come down to the July level, were forced to elevate the latter and the July option gained 3 1/2 cents for the week. While weather and crop conditions are ideal the farmer still clings to his corn and receivers look for very light receipts for some time. Bids of 3 1/2 cents over July delivery price were made at one time during the week by four different cash grain handlers for all of the corn in public elevators. The bids were refused, and this refusal helped to advance the speculative market. On Thursday bids of 4 to 4 1/2 cents over July were made but no sales were reported. The value of the corn in store here will depend on the movement from the country.

Handsome Country Winnings.

Country speculators in corn have cleaned up the big professionals in the corn pit, J. A. Patten included, during the last two or three months. Country winnings in corn have not only been persistent, but they have been very handsome as well. Determined and often concerted raids on the market have been made by the big professionals, but they have hardly had three days of successive paper profits to count and have almost invariably been unable to turn these paper profits into cash.

September corn advanced 1 1/2 cents, last week and December gained 1 1/2 cents.

Light Trading in Oats.

There was lighter trading in oats last week and less interest than at any time for several months. Speculators are rather mixed. July liquidation continued in a moderate way and there was more or less speculative selling of September. Price changes for the week were small.

September pork sold Friday at $20.07. With the exception of a brief period in 1906, when cash pork sold for one day at $20 per barrel, this figure has not been seen in this market since the Ouday corner in 1893, when it sold at $23. It sold during the Armour corner in 1887 at $24 and the highest price on record in this market was during the war when it sold at $43 per barrel. With the exception of the manipulated markets of 1893 and 1887, therefore, the price reached on Friday was practically the highest since the Civil war. Lard and rib prices went to almost as high relatively as pork. No manipulation of the provision markets is now charged, but is due to the disappointing receipts of hogs during May and thus far this month and on the good shipping demand for dry salted meats.

MEXICO AS TOURED BY ROBOES

Mostly Invaders From United States Who Get Along By Begging.

The tourist season in Mexico is gradually waning, and the citizen of the United States living here, while regretting the departure of the sometimes trying but always opulent tourist, is happy in the thought that his exodus will also mark the flight of the American hobo.

No spot on the globe is safe from the invasion of the tramp if it be accessible by rail, and Mexico City, although many leagues from the border of the United States, is no exception to the rule. He crosses the Rio Grande at El Paso, Eagle Pass and Laredo. A knowledge of Spanish, while helpful, is by no means a necessity, as his victim is invariably one of his own countrymen.

"Sense me, misier, I'm a 'Merican citizen. Kin yer stake me to a piece of change?"

This is his usual salutation, and you turn and discover a scarecrow that puts to shame even the Mexican peon.

Hand him a little change and follow him. He will lead you into the native quarter and disappear into a saloon bearing perhaps over the door, "Bueno Tiempo de Jesus," and this is likely to be in Holy Ghost street.

Here he may obtain for less money than anywhere else on earth a varied assortment of drinks that will make a man go home and rob his own trunk and think he is getting away with it. For Mexico is undoubtedly the paradise of the thirsty man.—New York Herald.

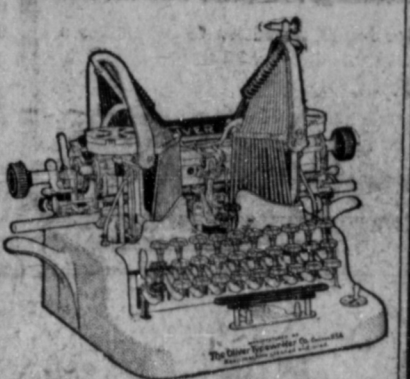

In the district court of the United States for the western district of Kentucky, in bankruptcy.

In the matter of Frank M. Ferryman, a bankrupt.

On this 5th day of June, A. D., 1909, on considering the petition of the aforesaid bankrupt for discharge, filed on the 4th day of June, A. D., 1909, it is ordered by the court that a hearing be had upon the same on the 26th day of June, A. D., 1909, before said court, at Louisville, said district, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, or as near thereto as practicable; and that notice thereof be published one time in the Paducah Sun, a newspaper printed in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

Three of a Kind.

"What's a pun, father?"
"A pun, my son, is a play upon words. There are three kinds of puns—good ones, which you laugh at; indifferent ones, which you take no notice of, and bad ones, which make you throw something at the punster."

"Can't you make a pun, father?"
"Of course, my son. Now, you're thinking about your supper, aren't you?"

"Yes, father."
"Well, that's s-upper most in your mind at the present time. That, you see, is a play on—here, you young rascal, what did you throw that book at me for?"—Florida Times-Union.

A six-volume edition of Moliere's plays has been sold in Paris for 177,600 francs, or $25,500. The book contains thirty-three original illustrations by Moreau le Jeune and is dated 1773.

ARMY ENGINEERS NOT COMPETENT

To Judge Commercial Value of Lakes to the Gulf.

President Kavanaugh Declares in Letter Their Opinion Will Have No Significance.

THEN POINTS TO ILLINOIS

St. Louis, June 8.—In a letter to Philip Woelfel, of New Orleans, W. K. Kavanaugh, of St. Louis, president of the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterway Association, had asserted that the opinion of the army engineers as to the commercial value of the project will have little significance.

Kavanaugh declined today to make public the full text of his letter to Woelfel, but said it contained statements that the army engineers were not qualified to pass on the commercial value of the waterway improvement.

"I received a telegram from Worle Saturday," said Kavanaugh, "stating that reports had reached him from Washington that the army engineers would declare the waterways project not commercially feasible. I replied in a letter reminding him that the engineers declared the Chicago-St. Louis waterway feasible, but not commercially worth what it would cost, estimated at $311,500,000. "Soon after this pronouncement I reminded him that Illinois voted a $20,000,000 bond issue for waterway purposes."

"I then wrote that I did not think the friends of the waterway need fear and adverse report on the commercial side of the question which the engineers might make."

Avoid the crowd and delay at the end of the month by payment of city tax bills now.

LAST RITES

OVER BODY OF EDGAR A. FOX MONDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral Service at Union Temple Methodist Church—Burial in Cave Hill.

Louisville, June 8.—Funeral services over the body of E. A. Fox, who died at his home 1322 Hepburn avenue, were held at 4 o'clock at Union Temple Methodist Episcopal church, Sixth street and Broadway. The Rev. W. R. Hendrix, pastor of the church, assisted by Dr. E. L. Powell, officiated. The burial was in Cave Hill cemetery.

Mr. Fox was general secretary of the Kentucky State Sunday School association and president of the International Sunday school State Secretaries' association. Nearly six weeks ago he was taken suddenly ill at his office in the Louisville Trust company building. He was taken in a carriage to his home and a physician was summoned. Mr. Fox grew gradually worse and three weeks ago a consultation of physicians was held. Last Sunday hope was practically abandoned and Mr. Fox's elder son, Edgar L. Fox, was called home from Danville, where he is a student. All the members of the family were at the bedside when the end came.

Since his removal to Louisville, eleven years ago, Mr. Fox had been connected with the State Sunday school work in Louisville. In that time he had his offices in this city, but his work as general secretary was such that much of his time was spent in traveling about the state. Previous to his coming to Louisville Mr. Fox lived in Paducah, where he was principal of the Paducah High school. He had always been deeply interested in pedagogy and kindred lines of social culture, and even after his affiliation with the Sunday school work Mr. Fox took a lively interest in public school development.

Three years ago Mr. Fox was a delegate to the international Sunday school convention in Rome, Italy. While he was abroad he traveled extensively through Europe and took pictures for stereopticon views. Upon his return to the United States he prepared a series of lectures and used the views in connection with delivering them.

Born on a farm in Perry county, Missouri, Mr. Fox remained on the farm until he was 21 years of age. He then went to the State Normal College at Cape Girardeau, Mo., where he was graduated in 1886. Shortly after leaving college, in the same year, he married Miss Emma Counts, of Perry county. For the next two years he taught in the high school at Perryville, and then he went to Columbus, Ky., where he was in charge of the High school for a year. From Columbus, Mr. Fox went to the Paducah, Ky., High school. He was principal of the Paducah High school for nine years, when he came to Louisville to become general secretary of the Kentucky State Sunday School association.

He was known throughout the country in Protestant religious circles. His work was of such an exceptionally high character that it commanded the attention and admiration of the International Sunday School workers. Mr. Fox was an expert in his line of labor and he had a wonderful amount of initiative power and creative and executive ability. He was the author of several books on Sunday school work, and his texts on the subject are regarded as standards. Mr. Fox was a member of the Union Methodist church and many times his unheralded and unobtrusive charities have made the hearts of the recipients glad.

The names of those who will act as pall-bearers at the funeral today follow:

John J. Davis, Houston Quin, R. B. Burdine, Clarence Watkins, A. B. Weaver and C. J. Meddis.

The members of the executive committee of the State Sunday School association will serve as honorary pall-bearers.

AN OLD SAYING.

Showing How Cause and Effect Are Never Far Removed.

It is an old saying "Where there's honey there's bees"—not less true is one which science has coined more recently, "Where there's Dandruff there's germs"—and to push the inference still further we may truly say "Where there's Dandruff cured Newbro's Herpicide has been at work."

The reason of Herpicide's isolation as a genuine cure for Dandruff lies in the fact that it attacks and destroys the root of the whole trouble—a parasitic germ which feeds upon the material which nourishes the hair follicle.

Other so-called remedies are not directed at this true cause of the disease.

Accept no substitute, there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. $1.00 bottles guaranteed.—R. W. Walker Co., Special Agents.

WAS MURDER

BELIEF OF CHICAGO POLICE IN BRINKLEY CASE.

Son of Evansville Physician Confers With Detective In Regard to Tragedy.

Chicago, June 8.—A conference between Dr. John T. Brinkley, Jr., and Captain of Detectives O'Brien and a partial report from two detectives sent to Evansville today caused the police to abandon the theory that Dr. John T. Brinkley committed suicide.

O'Brien has leaned toward the suicide theory since Brinkley met his death at the Wellington Hotel, Wednesday, but today reluctantly admitted that he believed the physician was murdered.

A Boy's Story. The story of a boy of having heard three men on a street car discussing the murder and the boy's declaration that one of the men said he had shot and killed Brinkley, added fresh interest to the investigation.

In the conversation heard by the boy, whose name the police would not divulge, one of the men said he was forced to shoot the old man as he awakened while being searched. When asked what he secured he answered $55 and a check, but he had destroyed the check. He also added that he threw his revolver on the bed. O'Brien says the boy's story does not appeal strongly to him. He believes the murder was committed by an employee of the hotel or a former employee.

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, A BRIEF SERMON ON THE PRACTICE OF BORROWING

While Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, etc., are troubles which affect the skin, their source is far deeper than the outside cuticle. These affections are caused by irritating humors, or uratic acid in the blood. Such impurities inflame and irritate the delicate net-work of fibrous tissue which lies just beneath the surface of the outer skin, and the inflammatory discharge thus produced is forced out through the pores and glands, and is continually kept up while the blood remains infected. This exudation causes the formation of scales and crusts so often seen in Eczema, and when they are scratched off the flesh is left raw and more susceptible to other infection. It can very readily be seen then that to produce a cure the circulation must be purified and cleansed. This S.S.S. will do. It goes down to the very bottom, removes all humors and impurities, neutralizes the excessive acid of the system and in this way removes the cause of disease. Local applications can only soothe the irritation and assist in keeping the skin clean; they never produce a cure because such treatment does not reach the blood. S.S.S. restores to the thin, acid blood all its lost properties, makes it pure and rich and enables it to nourish the skin and keep it soft, smooth and healthy. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free to all who write.

Knew He Was Alive.

A certain young man's friends thought he was dead, but he was only in a state of coma. When in ample time to avoid being buried, he showed signs of life, he was asked how it seemed to be dead.

"Dead!" he exclaimed. "I wasn't dead. I knew all that was going on. And I know I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry."

"But how did that fact make you think you were still alive?" asked one of the curious.

"Well this way: I knew that if I were in heaven I wouldn't be hungry. And if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold."—Exchange.

Lighting the Fire.

A fire broke out one night in one of the smaller towns of Massachusetts, whereupon its newly equipped fire department, composed of volunteers, was called on to show what it could do.

Only one lantern could be found, the smoke was pouring out of the building, and the night was dark. Finally a small tongue of fire appeared and a cheer went up as the firemen turned the hose in that direction.

At this moment the captain cried out: "Look out what you're doing there! Keep that water off that! It's the only light we've got to put out the fire by!"—June Lippincott's.

A BRIEF SERMON ON THE PRACTICE OF BORROWING

Among the daily and trivial customs which so frequently cause misunderstandings—afflict friendships and even wreck affection—none is so common and so belittling as the habit of borrowing. It is doubly pitiable, inasmuch as it is almost always unnecessary and, no matter what the necessity may be, to do without is generally in proportion to all former lovings of obligation.

Business loans between friends are frequently peculiarly unfortunate, because the bitterness of possible complications is generally in proportion to all former love, and it is decidedly the part of wisdom and economy to employ a trust and loan company, rather than appeal to a friend, for in the former instance there is no obligation, whereas in the latter, it cannot be reckoned, for there is no known power or standard sufficiently subtle to equalize sentiment and the material; so it will be well for all to bear in mind that a forfeited friendship is a far dearer form of interest to pay than the highest commercial percentage.

The quotation, "The way to lose a friend is to loan him money," has almost become a proverb and Thackeray speaks of the way in which a five-pound note will break up a half-century's attachment between two brethren.

The inexperienced will unreservedly state that there is some abnormal weakness in a friendship so easily affected, but, inexplicable as it may seem, the fact remains that sooner or later, such tests prove disastrous. Have we not all heard such remarks as "That family owes its success in life to my father's generosity," and no matter how punctilious the said "family" may have been in their payments, and notwithstanding what numerous evidences of gratitude may have been shown, there is almost always an indeliberately lat-almost feeling of over beneficence on the part of one, while the other is ever conscious of a sense of debt, impossible to liquidate.

It is true that the same feeling which prompts a kindness should, in all charity and generosity, forbid any allusion to the matter. However "It is human to err" and frequently a friend's prosperity, born of another's bounty, creates heart burnings, especially when the benefactor may have become less fortunate. These are of course the darkest and most unfortunate complications, whereas others may be proportionately beautiful. However, when dealing with uncertainties, it is always well to calculate and prepare for the most serious results.

Mr. Black has said that "the eclipse of friendship through death is not nearly so sad as the many ways in which friendship may be wrecked. There are worse losses than the losses of death and to bury a friend. The latter softens the heart and stimulates life, while the former hardens and embitters."—Exchange.

Half the spiritual difficulties that men and women suffer arise from a morbid state of health.—H. W. Bee-dow.

HANDS AND FEET ITCHED 12 YEARS

Suffered Terribly from Eczema which Made Hands and Feet Swell, Peel and Get Raw—Arms Affected, Too—Gave Up Hope of Cure.

USED CUTICURA AND WAS QUICKLY CURED

"I suffered from eczema on my hands, arms and feet for about twelve years, my hands and feet would swell, sweat and get very dry, then peel off and get raw. I tried most every kind of salve and ointment without success, only got temporary relief. As soon as I would leave off using the Cuticura I would be as bad as ever. I tried several doctors, took arsenic for two years and at last gave up thinking there was a cure for eczema. A friend of mine insisted on my trying the Cuticura Remedies but, supposing they were the same as other cures I had tried, I did not give them a trial until I was told that I had to do something. I secured a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and by the time they were used I could see a vast improvement and my hands and feet were healed up in no time. I used several bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. This was over a year ago and I have had no trouble since. I think I am entirely cured. Charles T. Bauer, R.F.D. 65, Volant, Pa., Mar. 11, 1908."

BABIES CURED

Of Torturing, Disfiguring Humors by Cuticura.

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have alleviated among skin-tortured, disfigured infants and children, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents have led to their adoption in countless homes as a priceless treatment for the skin and blood. Eczema, rashes, and every form of itching, scaly humor are speedily cured, in the majority of cases, when all else fails. Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (25c) to cleanse the skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c) to heal the skin and Cuticura Resolvent (50c) to purify the blood. Sold throughout the world. Write for a free book, "Cuticura Cures Skin Diseases," to The Cuticura Remedies Co., P.O. Box 100, Station, Mass.

SACRED GOOSE.

Figures of Fowl Indispensable at Chinese Wedding.

Flights of wild geese are reported from the eastern counties in number beyond all precedent, a result of sudden chill lately, and their appetite after the journey is so keen that some of the best grazing marshes are threatened with ruin. Nevertheless we learn many farmers decline to kill birds which they think "almost sacred."

It was J. F. Frazer of the Golden Lough who suggested that the reverence felt for various creatures in various parts of the world is a survival of totemism. Plenty of evidence has accumulated since then. Caesar mentions, as schoolboys recollect, that the inhabitants of Britain might not eat the hare, the cock and the goose. In the second case the superstition is quite lost probably, but legendary records keep the memory of it in Ireland. But of the other examples enough can be found even at the present day. There is a "goose fair" at Great Crosby, in Lancashire, so called apparently because goose is rigorously forbidden. It is even asserted broadly that the inhabitants think the goose "too sacred" to eat—or did not so long ago. The same feeling ruled in the Hebrides and other parts of Scotland.

No one believes at the present day that the capitol was saved by geese or any other means, but if the story is not true it becomes all the more significant in the folklorist's point of view, as showing that the bird was specially revered in the primitive age of Rome. The crusaders under Walter the Penniless, 400,000 souls, as we are assured, piously followed a goose and a goat marching in the van, and a terrible mess those holy animals led them into. In Egypt the goose was the emblem of Seb, father of Osiris. A precious figure of it is extant inscribed "The Good Goose Greatly Beloved."

It was the national flag of Burma, and of Kandy, Ceylon. Wherever Buddhism rules the goose is venerated. Therefore it is a leading motif in the art of Japan, and a symbol of peace and happiness in China. Figures of geese are as indispensable at a Chinese wedding as its bride cake with us. In both countries, as also in Burma and Siam, weights are made in the shape of a goose in token of good faith, though the connection is not obvious. But in ancient Egypt the same custom ruled, and Layard found goose weights among his first discoveries at Nineveh. A row of gigantic geese surrounds the great Buddhist temple of Annapoora. The devout cherish a serial pilgrimage to the holies of lakes in the Himalayas every year, transporting the layus of the neighborhood, returning with a new stock of inspiration for the encouragement of local piety.—Pall Mall Gazette.

A MAGUEY'S LIQUID TERRORS

Mexican Plant With Three Kinds of Drinks for "Dry" Territories.

There is a wonderful plant indigenous to Mexico which is responsible for a strange state of affairs called the Maguey, a large variety of the cactus family which when they get it up in the states they dub the century plant. This plant will grow anywhere apparently without help from man or water. The more uninviting the land the more it flourishes and it will not be denied existence even where a scorpion or a centipede would scorn to abide. And this plant is the fountain-head of Mexican intoxicants, than which there are no more terrific under the sun.

When the plant has reached the age of three-years the large century stalk is cut away, leaving a hollow holding approximately three quarts to a gallon. Each morning this will be found filled with a sweet nutty liquid called aqua miel (sweet water) nonintoxicating and very refreshing.

In twenty-four hours, if removed from the cavity it will ferment, and this fermented liquid is called quique, resembling in appearance, and tasting somewhat like sour buttermilk. Our friend the tramp can get a drink of this much larger than anything the Bowery of South Clark street has to offer for 3 cents Mexican. It is possible to get decidedly intoxicated by means of this stuff, but a man needs all the seven stomachs of a camel to hold it.

Pulque when distilled is known as mescal. A whiskey glass of this dynamite and the tramp wants to go out to the bullring and show the toreros some new stunts; two of them and he starts to remodel Don Porfirio's government; three and he'll head a revolutionary party for Central America, and four, the finish, lands him in the comisarria.

A redistillation of mescal gives a diabolical liqueur known as tequila. A Mexican can handle tequila to a mild extent and it has cost centuries of application and constant practice to bring him to this state of perfection but an American—never! Each ounce of this is guaranteed to contain six disputes, three fights, two headaches and a jail sentence.—New York Herald.

The Life of a Nation.

Your nation may have art, poetry and science, all the refinements of civilized life, all the comforts and safeguards that human ingenuity can devise; but if it lose this spirit of personal and local independence, it is doomed and deserves its doom. As President Cleveland has well said, it is not the business of a government to support its people, but of the people to support their government; and once to lose sight of this vital truth is as dangerous as to trifle with some stealthy narcotic poison. Of the two opposite perils which have perpetually threatened the welfare of political society—anarchy on the one hand, loss of self-government in the other—Jefferson was right in maintaining that the latter is really the more to be dreaded because its beginnings are so terribly insidious.—John Fiske.

Color-Blind.

Three Irishmen were stopping at a second-rate hotel and one of them inhaled so freely at the bar that he had to be carried to his room, in which also slept a negro in a separate bed. His comrades, as a practical joke on him, proceeded to paint the Irishman's face black. In the morning, when awakened by the proprietor, he got up, and happened to catch sight of himself in the mirror. "Oh, he-jabers," he exclaimed, "if the Irish meddlers haven't gone and woke the nigger by mistake!"
And he crawled back in bed.—Success.

SAN FRANCISCO RECEIVES MEDAL

Presented by France For Its Heroism.

Ambassador Jusserand Makes Speech
Praising Courage and Perseverance.

BIG CELEBRATION IS HELD

San Francisco, June 8.—France today paid national tribute to the spirit of the new San Francisco when Ambassador Jean Jules Jusserand, in behalf of the people of the French Republic, presented to this city a medal commemorative of the determination and courage that has erected another and greater city from the ruins left in the wake of the earthquake and fire of April 18, 1906.

Attended by impressive ceremony, the formal presentation of the medal was made upon the stage of the San Francisco Orpheum theater. Grouped about Mayor Edwin Robson Taylor upon the stage were representatives of San Francisco and California. The auditorium was filled to the topmost balcony with citizens.

In a stage box, draped with the flags of France and the United States, sat the first lady of San Francisco, Mrs. Edwin Robson Taylor, wife of the mayor, with a party of friends. Her guest of honor was Madame Jusserand.

An augmented orchestra performed the stirring overture "Robespierre." As the last notes died away, Ambassador Jusserand, escorted by Consul General Henri Merou of France, and a guard of 25 citizens, appeared upon the stage. At the conclusion of his address, he presented to the mayor, for the municipality of San Francisco, the magnificent medal, the gift of the people of France.

As the mayor accepted the memorial, the orchestra broke into the martial strains of the "Marseillaise" every person in the great audience rising to his feet.

Mayor Taylor briefly expressed the gratitude and appreciation of the city. The spectators remained standing while the orchestra played "The Star Spangled Banner," concluding the formal exercises.

Since the arrival of Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand early yesterday, they have been feted continuously. They have been the guests of every French organization in the city, and last night were tendered a reception by the entire French colony.

This afternoon was spent in a sight-seeing tour of the city in the care of a party of citizens headed by the mayor.

Tonight at the Fairmont Hotel, a banquet will be spread in honor of the distinguished visitors. Mayor Taylor will preside and among the speakers will be Pres. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of the University of California; Chief Justice W. H. Beatty, of the California supreme court, and M. Henri Merou, French Consul general.

The apartments of Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand at the Fairmont hotel are lavishly decorated. The crossed French and American flags are augmented by a profusion of California flowers, brought three times daily from the beds of Golden Gate park.

What San Francisco Did.

April 18, 1906.—San Francisco was leveled by a terrific earthquake. The tremor was followed by an all-devastating fire that raged for the greater part of three days, sweeping over the heart of the city, along the water front and into the residence districts in the hills. Thousands were made homeless; other thousands lost their every penny. Predictions were general that if the city was ever rebuilt it never again would approximate the size and importance in the commercial world it had attained before the terrible disaster.

The following tables illustrate what San Francisco has accomplished in the short space of three years.

April 18, 1906.

Area of burned district, 4 square miles.

Number of blocks burned, 497.

Buildings destroyed, 28,198.

Property loss, $500,000,000.

Value of buildings destroyed, $105,000,000.

Insurance due, $218,000,000.

Population, 495,000.

Population within radius of 15 miles of City Hall, 650,000.

June 5, 1909.

New buildings erected, 20,000.

Value of new building, $158,000,000.

Rehabilitation of public utilities, $25,000,000.

Estimated rehabilitation of municipal properties, $25,000,000.

New fire system, to be most complete in the world, $5,000,000.

Population (November, 1908), 507,000.

Population within radius of 15 miles of city hall, 900,000.

Increase in population of San Francisco Bay region, 250,000.

Insurance paid on losses of the great conflagration, $200,000,000.

Every man knows just how to play the game until he goes to the bat.

An Indigestion Remedy Free

Many people who are otherwise healthy suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia. When you consider that the stomach and allied digestive organs are the most important organs of the body, it would seem that a disorder there is to be taken very seriously.

Dyspepsia cannot eat the things they like; food sour in the stomach; then chronic constipation, head or, as is often the case, you have been constipated all along, and the stools are forced and irregular.

But there is no use letting indigestion go until it becomes chronic and undermines your health. It is good advice to suggest to you that you go to your drug store and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. That is what C. Fowler, of Carson City, Mich., did and he is well today. Others who left the same and are cured are Ida A. Fortune, of Grand Junction, Tenn., B. F. Thompson, of Shenandoah, Ia., who actually considers that it saved his life. You can obtain a 50-cent or $1 bottle of the drug, and, taken according to directions, it will probably be all you need. It is a liquid, acts gently, never gripes, and besides the laxative effect, contains exceptional tonic properties which tone the stomach, and that is what is especially needed in indigestion.

All sufferers from indigestion who have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can obtain a free test bottle by writing the doctor. It will be sent direct to your home without any charge. In this way thousands have proven to their own satisfaction Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the very remedy they needed to cure indigestion. When once you use this grand remedy you will throw violent cathartics, tablets, salts, etc., away.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, Dr. Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

A Promise to Pay

Would you accept a stranger's note? No. Then why accept from a stranger any other promise to pay? A Fire insurance policy is such a promise. Ought you to accept it without knowing all about the Company? Your usual business confidence is based on knowledge. Why make an exception in that part of your business which deals with insurance? A name is worth nothing on any kind of a promise to pay unless it is backed by character and resources.

We favor insurance knowledge, particularly about our companies. Their promises to pay have never gone to protest. Their obligations to its policy holders are backed with such a good reputation and such ample financial resources that the more you know about them the more you will want protection by their policies.

STATE WANTS ITS OWN FLAG

Missouri, When Republic, Had Ensign—Legislature Asked for Another.

The bill recently introduced in the Missouri legislature to provide a flag for the state recalls the fact that in the years preceding the great civil war the state of Missouri had its own ensign, used for both military and ceremonial purposes. The state of Missouri was a republic in those days, so declared emphatically and officially in the preamble to its first constitution. The preamble is brief and pointed, and is:

"We, the people of Missouri inhabiting the limits hereinafter designated by our representatives in convention assemble, at St. Louis, on Monday, the 12th day of June, 1820, do mutually agree to form and establish a free and independent republic by the name of the State of Missouri, and for the government thereof do ordain and establish this constitution."

This preamble and the constitution accompanying it became the organic law of the state. Missouri was admitted into the Union under that constitution, which continued in operation more than forty years, until it gave way for the Drake constitution, brought into existence during the time of the civil war, which in turn, was superseded in 1875 by the present constitution.

The old flag of Missouri was the emblem under which the Missouri state guards organized in 1861. It was the flag carried by Price's army during the first year of the civil war. It was not a confederate flag and was never carried by rebel soldiers. It was strictly a state flag, and those who marched beneath it sought to vindicate and establish the extreme state rights doctrine enunciated in the preamble to the constitution.

Those who went out in 1861 in defense of the old blue merino flag believed it was their right and duty to maintain Missouri in armed neutrality in the conflict then existing between the North and the South. They resisted the armies of the United States, believing they had a right to resist all invasion. Several pitched battles and many skirmishes were fought by the state troops with the federal soldiers in defense of this theory.

After the battle of Pea Ridge, fought in March 1862, the Missouri state guards perceiving the impossibility of holding Missouri, furled the state flag and many enlisted in the confederate army, among them Sterling Price, who then resigned his commission as major-general of the state troops.—New York Herald.

MINNICOGANASHENE.

A hard name to pronounce, called locally "Minnicog." This is a picturesque summer resort on one of the largest islands of the Georgian Bay, only 3 1/2 hours run by the Grand Trunk Railway System from the City of Toronto, Canada, and beautifully situated among the 30,000 islands of that territory. Splendid hotel accommodations, good fishing, fine boating and no hay fever. Bass, trout, pickerel and pike abound. For illustrated descriptive matter and all information, write to G. W. Vaux, 917 Merchants Loan & Trust Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

The Puny Child.

At the Prescott school in Charlestown, Mass., a class was made up of 20 puny children who were backward in their studies, the kind of underweight children who are no good at baseball and are likely later to develop consumption. In one month they gained an average of four pounds in weight and improved greatly in their studies. What seems so marvelous was not miracle. They were simply taught out of doors. In the middle of each session each child had a cup of hot malted milk. So easy as that! There are schools in New York—big, fine, new schools—that have the prison smell all winter and spring for lack of ventilation. "It would be a blessing to puny children in such schools to be taught out of doors. Meanwhile why not let air into the schools themselves? The schools must teach the homes if New York is to conquer the white death.—New York World.

RHEUMATISM CURED.

To anyone suffering with rheumatism I will say I was confined in bed and unable to walk, even with sticks, for six weeks. My family physician said I was bound to grow worse as I grew older. I took a bottle of Hays' Specific. One bottle cured me sound and well. I have gained ten pounds in weight and can eat any kind of food without pain.

Work and Years.

John Bigelow, of New York, who last month celebrated his ninety-first birthday, has issued in pamphlet form a discussion of the tariff on imports with a substitute "provision for an equitable distribution of the wealth of nations," which is suggested in a letter addressed to Gov. Charles E. Hughes. This would be a noteworthy production from a publicist of middle age. It becomes more remarkable when appearing as the work of a man who has already passed beyond the age of four score years and ten.

We have several contemporaneous examples of high intellectual powers remaining active and unimpaired at a very advanced age. Thomas Wentworth Higginson at 85 continues nearly as active as ever in literary work. Prof. Goldwin Smith at the same age still demonstrates his right to a conspicuous place in the councils of men. Edward Everett Hale is not perceptibly broken by his 88 years. In pursuing the work to which most of his life has been given. Many other examples equally striking might be doubt given. If it be true that the age at which men can be useful in business and industrial affairs is decreasing under the high pressure of our modern life, it is evidently not true that the life of today in its more comprehensive character is showing a capacity to reduce among men the years naturally allotted to them on the earth. Rather the contrary.—Springfield Republican.

AN OLD-TIME PRESCRIPTION

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c, and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.
